CALL FOR ENTRIES!

To be Hungry is to experience a complex sensation which necessitates a feeling of emptiness that is often unpleasant. A sensation which left unattended can evolve into a craving that dominates our every thought and action. Being hungry is self-perpetuating; and once the deficit is filled we become increasingly dependent, increasingly desirous.

DICHOTOMY 23 HUNGRY INVITES YOU...

...to get your fill, relieve your appetites, reach out for your desires, and feed your creativity. Submissions should consider Hungry as a sense of longing relief from the starving, barren, and otherwise dissatisfied, as well as its relation to the discourse of architecture, urbanism, design, and all the arts in between.

DICHOTOMY IS A STUDENT JOURNAL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DETROIT MERCY SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE
